

Internet Management Office demands we eliminate all content about the Lufeng incident. Because there is [official] news published on this incident, we asked [MANAGER] to seek clarification from the Internet Management Office. [MANAGER] says to only deal with negative content. The current decision is to secret content claiming that someone was beaten to death or inflammatory content; report big users. Content similar to official media should be allowed.