

[Internet Management Office] demands we eliminate all content about the [Lufeng incident]. Because there is [official] news published on this incident, we asked [MANAGER] to seek clarification from the [Internet Management Office]. [MANAGER] says to only deal with negative content. The current decision is to secret content claiming that someone was beaten to death or inflammatory content; [report big users]. Content similar to official media should be allowed.

2011-12-11

